

A Trip to My Dream Countries

Things to Do:

Individual Work

Imagine if you could plan a trip, for say one month, anywhere in the world. Let's say you can go to at least two different countries. Of course, you have to plan it very carefully to make sure you can do all the things in your dream. Where would you go and what would you need to know about the places before you got there? Write an essay with information from the Web and send the essay to your teacher via e-mail.
